Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) Policy Statement

Swaminarayan Siddhanta Institute of Engineering and Technology, Nagpur has constituted an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC). This Committee is committed to fostering a respectful, inclusive, and safe environment, particularly for women students and employees.

Sexual harassment, in any form, is a violation of an individual's dignity and integrity. The ICC envisions a workplace and academic culture based on equality, mutual respect, and justice. It guarantees that every member of the campus community irrespective of role or designation is protected against any form of sexual misconduct.

The Committee functions impartially and confidentially, ensuring that all complaints are addressed seriously, swiftly, and sensitively. The ICC strives to empower individuals by providing a platform where they can raise concerns without fear of stigma or retribution.

Objectives of the ICC

The objectives of the ICC are to:

1. Establish a permanent and structured mechanism for preventing and redressing cases of sexual harassment.
2. Create awareness among all institutional members about their rights and available redressal procedures.
3. Receive, investigate, and resolve complaints of sexual harassment in a fair, unbiased, and confidential manner.
4. Recommend disciplinary action based on the findings of its inquiries.
5. Conduct sensitization programs, workshops, and campaigns to promote gender equity and respectful conduct.
6. Protect the rights and dignity of complainants, witnesses, and respondents throughout the complaint process.

Scope of the Policy

This policy applies to:

- > All students, faculty, non-teaching staff, research scholars, and administrative personnel of the institution.
- > Consultants, visitors, service providers, vendors, and other third-party associates working with or within the institution.
- > All activities held within the institutional campus, including classrooms, laboratories, hostels, offices, canteens, and transportation.
- > Institutional events, workshops, study tours, internships, and activities held off-campus but authorized by the institution.

The ICC shall address all forms of sexual harassment including physical, verbal, non-verbal, textual, or online misconduct that creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work/learning environment.

Internal Complaint Committee

Procedure for Lodging Complaints

The ICC has established the following procedure for handling complaints:

The aggrieved person may file a written complaint with the Presiding Officer of the ICC. Complaints can be submitted in hard copy, via institutional email, or through an online redressal portal (if available).

The ICC acknowledges the complaint and assesses its admissibility. If accepted, a formal inquiry is initiated.

The inquiry is conducted confidentially in accordance with institutional and legal procedures. It is to be completed within 90 days of receiving the complaint.

A detailed report with findings and recommendations is submitted to the Head of the Institution within 10 days after the inquiry's completion.

The management shall act on the ICC's recommendations within 30 days.

All proceedings, reports, and identities shall be treated with utmost confidentiality and recorded securely for future reference.

Disciplinary Action

Depending on the severity of the complaint and based on inquiry findings, the following actions may be recommended:

- > Written apology or formal warning
- > Temporary suspension from academic or administrative duties
- > Withholding of promotion, increment, or privileges
- > Termination of employment or expulsion from the institution
- > Mandatory participation in counseling or gender-sensitization programs

Institutional Commitment

Swaminarayan Siddhanta Institute of Engineering and Technology reaffirms its zero-tolerance policy toward sexual harassment. The institution is devoted to cultivating an environment of safety, equality, dignity, and respect for all stakeholders.

The ICC is empowered to uphold the principles of justice and ensures that no person complainant or respondent is subject to prejudice, retaliation, or discrimination.

This policy shall be reviewed periodically to ensure compliance with evolving legal and social norms, and to maintain the integrity of the institutional work culture.
